

Russell Thirgood

Nationality: Australian

Languages: English

Russell Thirgood is a Chartered Arbitrator who specialises in Construction & Infrastructure, Energy, Natural Resources and Commercial disputes, with an office in Brisbane and Chambers in London.

Prior to becoming a fulltime arbitrator, Russell spent over 20 years at McCullough Robertson, where he was partner and head of arbitration.

Russell is experienced in resolving complex and high value commercial disputes. He has conducted cases throughout Australia, the Pacific, Asia, US, UK, Middle-East and Europe, under some of the key international and domestic arbitral institutional rules. He has been appointed by parties jointly and arbitral institutions, including the ICC and ACICA.

As arbitrator, he applies a modern, robust and dynamic approach to all proceedings. He is responsive to the needs of parties and their counsel to ensure all cases are conducted swiftly, effectively and efficiently. Counsel appearing before him often comment that he is well prepared, considered, collaborative and concise.

Russell is the current Chair of The Resolution Institute (the pre-eminent dispute resolution organisation in Australia and New Zealand) and is a director of the Australian Centre for International Commercial Arbitration.

He is regularly recognised by the directories including Who's Who Legal, Best Lawyers, Doyle's Guide and Legal 500 Asia Pacific.

"Russell Thirgood is one of Australia's pre-eminent Grade 1 arbitrators with extensive experience in high-value and complex construction related arbitrations".

Russell was recently awarded 'International Arbitration Lawyer of the Year' by Best Lawyers Australia.
