

FRANK LATTAL

Nationality: American

Languages: English

Frank Lattal is a leading professional in the world of commercial and civil dispute resolution. As arbitrator and mediator Frank specialises in civil, commercial, and insurance-related disputes. Throughout his career, Frank has been responsible for evaluating, formulating, and executing strategies to resolve complex disputes through arbitration, mediation, litigation, and facilitated negotiation. He has accumulated an abundance of real-life experience in the dynamics of successful conflict dispute resolution.

For over 3 decades, Frank has sat as arbitrator and acted as counsel and corporate executive, in a wide range of commercial, tort, and insurance-related disputes arising under the laws of many common and civil law countries. Frank's unparalleled career is made up of over 14 years of private legal practice as an advocate in arbitration, mediation, negotiation and litigation, followed by 21 years as a senior corporate executive responsible for resolving legal disputes. Most recently, he served for 15 years as the Chief Claims Officer for Chubb Group, the world's largest publicly traded Property and Casualty Insurance Company. Frank was the chief executive officer for Chubb's claim organization of over 6000 professionals operating in 54 countries that paid more than $16 billion annually in claims adjudication. In 2019 he left Chubb to further establish his arbitrator practice.

Frank's experience in international dispute resolution has been unique and substantial. He is comfortable in and knowledgeable of international jurisdictions, having lived as an American ex-patriate for much of his career. As an operating company General Counsel and then as Chief Claims Officer for Chubb, he travelled extensively to major continents and throughout the UK, Europe, Asia, Latin America, and the United States, resolving complex disputes, many with 9 figure valuations under civil and common law legal systems. Frank has first-hand experience and knowledge of different legal and conflict systems in over 54 countries including; Germany, Columbia, Canada, Mexico, France, Brazil, Italy, UK, Australia, Argentina, Dominican Republic, Seychelles, Venezuela, Vietnam, Ukraine and Africa. This responsibility provided a practical understanding of the impact of local norms on conflict resolution. His international arbitration experience includes decision-making responsibility for 19 matters taken to award, each valued at $100M or more.

Frank is as a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, is a member of the CPR Panel of Distinguished Neutrals and admitted to the DIAC, SIAC and Cayman Islands Panel of Arbitrators. He is certified as an arbitrator by ARIAS (UK & USA) and FINRA. He is also a trained mediator. He is admitted to practice law in New York and New Jersey. He is co-author of New Jersey Insurance Law, a 1000-page insurance law treatise currently in 17th edition published annually since 1993 by ALM Media Partners, LLC.

Few professionals have had greater first-hand experience analyzing and resolving disputes under the “Bermuda Form”.

Commercial Dispute Resolution

Frank has considerable experience resolving commercial and contractual claims as well as construction disputes involving fidelity, crime, performance, advance payment, and surety bonds.

His experience in-house spans all the major lines of business and industries that have spawned major claim activity and arbitrations including pharmaceuticals, railroads, aerospace, petrochemicals, motor vehicles, construction, municipalities, nation-states, colleges, and universities. His experience extends to claims arising out of natural disasters (Hurricanes, Floods, Wildfires) and disputes brought by consumers against commercial banks.

Frank has been involved in multiple consumer class actions disputes involving cyber breaches, TCPA, FDCPA, and other statutory claims. He has also served first hand in securities class actions disputes, involving public and private companies, their boards of directors and their senior managers. At Chubb, Frank also handled professional liability claims involving insurance brokers/agents, managing general agents (MGAs), and managing general underwriters (“MGUs”).

Construction, Engineering & Infrastructure

Frank has sat as an arbitrator in large and complex construction and insurance disputes. Whilst at Ace/Chubb Frank handled many significant claims brought under insurance policies written for major construction projects around the world by owners, design professionals, general contractors, sub-contractors, and other interested parties. These claims were noticed under Builders Risk, OCIP, CCIP, Commercial & Contractor General Liability, Professional Liability and Inland Marine policies as well as under Construction Related Bonds. These claims included Construction and Design Defect, Professional Liability, Breach of Contract, Delay, Disruption, Extra Work, Surety and Performance Bonds, Political Risk, and Construction Accidents resulting in Personal Injury and Property Damage.

Frank has recently sat as an arbitrator on a 3-member panel for claims surrounding the construction of a new landmark bridge ($1.4bn dollar project) connecting New York and New Jersey which resulted in a hearing and a written award.

Other representative matters include:

Cross-Border Investment and Political Risk Disputes

Throughout his career Frank had responsibility for evaluating and resolving many matters involving cross-border investment disputes as a result of government actions like expropriation and exchange controls, as well as political violence and instability, breach of contract, and sovereign debt defaults and restructuring. He has a solid understanding of the various dynamics and complexities that exist in cross-border financial disputes.

Mediation & Dispute Adjudication Boards (DAB's)

Frank is often recommended as a mediator and dispute board member as his commercial experience and approach assists parties in amicably resolving their disputes. Frank is familiar with all types of contractual contracts including FIDIC and ECT. Disputes have arisen in all corners of the world including the UK & Europe, USA, Asia and Latin America.

His experience in insurance coverage mediation is 3-fold: First, as a practicing solicitor, he represented parties in many insurance-related mediations. Second, as Chief Claims Officer for ACE/Chubb, he represented the company at many mediations that involved large, significant damages and complex insurance issues. Third, as a trained, practicing Mediator.

As a mediator, Frank is open-minded and encourages transparency and constructive discussions in order to move efficiently throughout the process. He has unparalleled views having developed first-hand experience as counsel, client, and most recently as an arbitrator and mediator.

Most recently, he assisted parties in reaching an agreement and resolving a case in a one-day mediation in New York City. The matter involved a $44M dispute over the terms of the insurance contract that governed the contractual relationship between the two companies. The claimant alleged that the defendant had breached certain terms of the policy including failing to maintain adequate reserves and failing to conform to other conditions in the contract.
