

Peter Mason, FCI Arb

Nationality: Australian & American

Languages: English

Peter Mason is an independent arbitrator and mediator and an independent (NED) Board member of companies in the USA and Japan.

He brings to his arbitration and mediation practice forty years' industry experience and a long and successful track record as a senior corporate leader at a multi-billion dollar global enterprise; as a leading international lawyer; as a disputes lawyer in private practice in both Australia and the United States; and as an independent Board member (NED) of companies in the USA (NYSE) and Japan.

He has a broad commercial practice as an ARD professional, and has recent experience in disputes relating to trusts, fiduciary duties, and family matters.

Before his Arbitrator career, Peter spent more than 20 years as Global General Counsel at UNICEF, a highly respected, multi-billion dollar, mission-driven international enterprise, with operations in over 152 countries, where he oversaw the legal support and advice to all business units and offices around the world, leading and in-house teams and managing outside counsel in numerous jurisdictions. While at UNICEF, Peter was responsible for managing organisational risk and ensuring compliance. He designed and negotiated complex international financing for development and public private partnerships. He was a trusted and confidential advisor to four successive UNICEF global chief executives.

At UNICEF, Peter held a number of senior leadership roles as Global General Counsel. He was a member of the Global Management Team, Security Management Team and various AdHoc project boards overseeing significant corporate shifts.

Peter was also the Chair of the Investment Committee overseeing two outside managers of a sustainable investment fund (US$2.1B AUM as of June 2021) and was a member of the UNICEF Finance Committee, Audit Committee, and Innovative Finance Board.

Peter has significant experience negotiating major international commercial transactions such as high-value contracts for vaccines, diagnostics, therapeutics, logistics, insurance, and related finance agreements.

He also has extensive experience leading successful negotiations of complex and sensitive agreements with governments and non-state entities. Peter was counsel of record in arbitrations involving Unicef, and appeared before various international courts.

In private practice, both in New York and Sydney, Australia, Peter litigated complex, high-value, international commercial disputes — both lawsuits and arbitrations — involving courts, tribunals, or parties in, among other places, the US, the UK, Australia, Malaysia, the Nordic countries, Columbia, Brazil, and Singapore.

In addition to his arbitration practice, Peter is a Board member of Franklin Templeton's LM closed-end funds (NYSE), where he chairs the Board's Compensation Committee and serves on a number of other Board committees including Audit, Pricing and Valuation, and Nominating.

He is also a Supervisory Board Member (kansayaku) of the Tokyo-headquartered GHIT Fund, a private company in Japan which invests in biopharma R&D globally.

Peter is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (FCIArb) and has completed numerous training in mediation since 2012. Born in Papua New Guinea, Peter is a national of Australia and America.
